Gentlemen:

I have received a letter from the metropolitan Museum of art, in regard to two certain coins I have, Foreign money one is dated 1765 a Double Ducat, Patrona Regina on the face side of coin, + on the back side is inscribed Maria Theresa, and the other coin is one Ducat, date 1750 of the same origin.

Please let me know if you buy any coins
of this Description
or not, as The Metropolitan Museum
of Art recomended
me, to write to you
to find out about these coins, I am enclosing a postage
for a reply.

Very Truly Yours,

Paul Bozoky

Dear Sir:

Your coins hail from Hungary. They are not rare and you can only get very little above their gold content for them. We are not interested in buying them.

Very truly yours,
